Hey bro! Sorry for not writing or calling. Kellie changed her damn number again and she is trying to get Evercom to transfer the credit to her new phone. Her # is 555-555-5555.

Well as for me bro – déjà vu. Every day is the same shit. I'm trying to pick up on my workouts more. Trying to keep my mind busy. The closer it gets, the more antsy I get. Come November 13th it is 60 days bro! So many thoughts through my head...where I was 10 years ago...5 years ago...last year...and where I will be once I start putting my life back together. I don't think much anymore about what happened but I do have little reminders to keep me on guard. It is going to be very weird...so many emotions and people whose lives I have affected. I know when I get the chance to see you I will just grab and hold on to you bro! You have always been my bro and always will.

Kandy has written me. In fact she sent me a post card and last time she sent some $$ too. I always make sure to write her and say thanks. Wrote to Mike. Still waiting to hear back. My mom and dad plan on picking me up the day I get out with my family and Kellie. We'll go out to breakfast and then they are off to Las Vegas for a few days. I am ok with that. Kellie said she will hang out with me. They waited long enough. They need a vacation from me. I want to take a drive to the mountains...just drive...breathe again...come back and spend time with my brothers and sisters. I want to BBQ that night, I don't care if there is a blizzard...then catch up on a lot of movies and relax.

But I have to try and not think much about that. Can you tell – Kelly McAfee sent me a Halloween card. It was nice to hear from her! I hope she comes by to visit. My mom and dad's number is 555-555-5555. Please keep it handy. I hope you find the time to come visit next time you are out here. Remember that my visits are Sunday through Tuesday. I work until 12pm but you can visit if you call and let them know you are here from out of town. How is the family? I hope they are doing well and you are getting ready for baby #2. Right on bro. How are your mom and dad and Kimmy? I hope all are well. Well...hope to hear from you soon.

Your bro always,
Eddy
