

pearls of wisdom

Written by bubba

Beer, tequila, whiskey, red wine, Tujuaca (whatever that is). Had all those things last night. And there was some variety too. For example, in the 'beer' category there was Michelob Ultra, Heineken, Michelob Light and Corona...and more than one of each type. Did it feel like too much? Depends. I think the answer to that question depends on timing. Last night? No. This morning? Totally.
